WHAT WE OFFER

1. We offer protected business categories - Once your category is filled no other members can provide your services.
2. Current members get a vote on new members - Once you join, you get a say as to who fills the other open spots.
3. A way to expand your business contacts - Local business professionals who are here to help each other.
4. Monthly newsletter - Allows for easy distribution of news about new members and any new business services you might have.
5. Voluntary meetings - We know people have busy schedules, so please attend meetings when you have time.
6. Tippecanoe Business Network website - Your business and logo will be listed on the site with a link to your own site.
7. Business cards - You will receive some business cards used to direct people to the Tippecanoe Business Website.

MEMBERSHIP AGREEMENT

1. You agree to read the newsletter and keep up with new members and their services.
2. You agree to promote the other members and their business and services.
3. You agree to nominate a professional business that could possibly fill a current open category.
4. Members can be removed for failing to promote the other members or by unprofessional actions in the community.
5. Dues are $100 a year, which gets you business cards each year and helps pay for the website and associated fees.
